A Note from Our Pastor...

Dr. Randy Working

Dear Friends,

This is a time of challenge for many in our country, given the economic reality of these days. In such times we face a choice. We can face the challenge, or we can run away from it. I like the words from the book of the prophet Isaiah:

“Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, ‘Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God.’” (Isaiah 35:3-4a)

In times of struggle, we’re not just to be strong or deal with it on our own, but to trust in the Lord. You are not in the

“I’ve been inspired by Max
Lucado’s book
Fearless: Live Your Life Without Fear...a good lesson for our lives.”

situation you face by yourself. The Lord who loves you is in it with you. When we know Jesus is with us in our situation, we can stand with firm knees and strong hands.

I think that's what the 33 Chilean miners discovered in their 69 days of confinement 2,300 feet underground. CNN reported that one miner said, during the ordeal, "I am fine because Christ lives in me." Another said, "There weren't just 33 persons, there were 34, because God never left us." The Lord strengthened the miners and enabled them to stand.

In light of the challenges we face as individuals and as a church, I've been moved to make a change from my preaching plan. I'll do a sermon series within a series as I step out of Romans from November 14 through Christmas to focus on the theme "Fearless." I've been inspired by Max Lucado's book Fearless: Live Your Life Without Fear, and will take some general topics from that book as well as share what the Bible has to say about fear. If we trust God more, we can fear less, and we are strengthened. That is a good lesson for our times.

With love for you in Christ,
Pastor Randy

What Does God Want for Christmas?

The children and youth will unveil the answer to this question during their 6 weeks of performances during Children's Moments.

The "Grand Finale" will take place during the Christmas Eve service at 5:00 where ALL children will be invited to be part of a live Nativity.

Please mark your calendars for November 21 and ask family and friends now to join us to watch the children and youth perform, "What Does God Want for Christmas?".

...Love each other, as I have loved you...

Jason Monsman
Outreach Director
monsmanj@gmail.com

The "Time of Greeting" has always played two important roles in our Sunday mornings. First, it allows us to demonstrate our care and concern for each other. It also ensures that visitors to our community are met with a smiling face. You may have noticed that we no longer greet each other at the beginning of the service, but rather, at the end. At the time of the benediction, Pastor Randy says something along the lines of "As you leave, be sure to take a moment to welcome someone you haven't this morning as we invite each other into fellowship..." and then, as the service closes, we are given the opportunity to do just that. Rather than a quick "Mornin'," sharing the greeting to the end of the service will hopefully create more conversation and community.

The impact of the greeting, on both us as a community, and on our guests, will be enhanced as we begin to observe this (unwritten) "One Minute

Rule." By reminding us to "take a moment..." the person giving the benediction is really inviting us to consciously seek the creation and deepening of our relationships at CPC. Slowing down and walking to the Fellowship Hall together will let us see how the other person is really doing. It will provide an opportunity to learn more than the name of our guest. It will allow us to show love for visitor and regular attendees, alike.

John 13:34-35 tells us, "So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples." (NLT) When I read this, I hear God's Word telling us that love is our greatest tool. It is our greatest tool for building and maintaining our community. It is our greatest tool to build up His Kingdom, to evangelize. One of the keys to gaining and retaining members, in any church, is to build or revive a genuine and loving community. I believe all are goals worthy of us sacrificing our place in the snack line.

To those of us who have experienced the love that flows from our congregation, it's obvious that it's there. Christ Presbyterian has always been a welcoming community, but sometimes we need to be reminded to slow down... especially on a Sunday morning. Slowing down to show the love we know is there to our friends and neighbors who stop in for a visit; Slowing down to refresh a member of the church family who may not be experiencing our love at its fullest measure. We don't always know who might need encouragement from us. We won't always know what a visitor's situation is. Taking the invitation to slow down and "take a moment..." will help us discover these things or even unknowingly solve them. That can only strengthen our community and increase our fellowship!

DEACON'S MINUTES

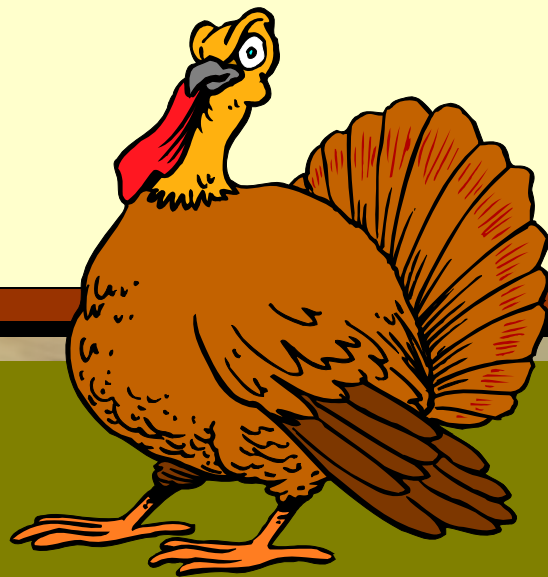

Thirteen members met on Oct. 4th. Pastor Randy opened in prayer and then reminded us about the Alpha class on Sunday eves. He spoke about prayer and not to make a show of praying, it is not meant to impress God or others. He spoke about the Lord's Prayer and explained that in Our Father, "our", means everyone, all of us, and heaven, means God above the world, majestic. Hallowed means revered, thy kingdom come, the theme of Jesus preaching, the kingly realm, and lead us not into temptation, the devil.

Secretary and treasurer reports were handed out, read and approved.

We received a beautiful thank you letter from Kelly Lupus regarding her mission trip and the playground they built. Greg McCandless was our Session rep and he reported on the upcoming decision on having one or two service, prayers for our budget and procedures regarding the new hymnals which will be coming. Beth B. is working on Halloween cards. We now have 28 college students.

Regarding our outreach and food committees, please let us know if you are aware of any needs. $200 was spent to help two CPC members. Things are going well with all other Deacon committees.

Respectfully submitted,
Barb Albrecht,
Deacon's Secretary

To my Dear friends at Christ Presbyterian Church, Thank you for your kind letters and notes. I have people read all of them to me. I am sorry that I've been so confused, but I have no recollection of what happened to me in Chesterland when I had to have surgeries. I have lost most of my vision in my right eye. My son living so far away in Minnesota, needed me to live closer to them so they could be in charge of my affairs. I have a room by myself. I am making new friends with similar circumstances.
My belief in our God and my wonderful family here in Minnesota, take care of me.

God Bless you all.
Sincerely,
Connie Wilkerson

What is Christ Presbyterian Church?

We are a family called to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. We do this through calling others to personal faith in Christ, equipping them as His disciples, and inviting them into loving relationships. In all we say and do, we seek to demonstrate the love of God.
